THE GLENWOOD

A Summer and Winter Resort for Pleasure and Health.

Riverside, San Bernardino County, Cal.

THE GLENWOOD is universally recognized as one of the best and most attractive hotels in the State. It occupies an entire block of two and one-half acres, centrally located, with pleasant surroundings in the way of fruit and ornamental trees, flowers and shrubbery. Around the building, on both floors, are broad balconies, forming fine promenades, aggregating a quarter of a mile in length, part of which are encased with glass and trellised with vines. The sunlight reaches every room, and they are all easy of access from broad halls and balcony. Baths and closets, electric bells, and all the modern improvements to be found in a first-class hotel. Open grates and stoves afford opportunity for fires when desired. Parlors, reading room, office and dining room all on first floor, spacious, sunny and convenient.

CERTIFICATE

.....OF.....

Water Analysis.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 18, 1882.

For Mr. Victor Beaudry, Los Angeles:

I have carefully analyzed the sample of water —marked as under—and find the following to be the proportions in every 100 parts:

[Mark of sample, Los Angeles.]

Solid residue, 29.16 grains per United States gallon.

Chlorine, 2.39 grains per United States gallon.

Ammonia (free and combined), .085 milligram per litre.

Albuminoid ammonia, .12 milligram per litre.

The water does not indicate the presence of any injurious ingredient in abnormal quantities, and is a good quality of water for dietetic purposes. It is free from any sewage contamination.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS PRICE, M. D.

NOTICE.

To whom it may concern:

I take pleasure to lay before the public the above certificate of analysis of the water from the knowing, as I do, that good water is most essential to the health of the consumer.

LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES.

(County Official Paper.)

By YARNELL, CAYSTILE, MATHES & OTIS.
OFFICE NO. 9 TEMPLE STREET.

Publishers' Announcements.

THE LOS ANGELES DAILY TIMES has a regular, permanent, bona-fide circulation very much larger than that of any other daily paper published in Los Angeles, and approximating that of all the other daily papers here added together. This claim we are prepared to substantiate.

FOR ADVERTISING the TIMES has its own equitable scale of prices, based on circulation, not on the prices charged by or paid to other papers.

THE TIMES can be found at the news stands of the Palace and Occidental Hotels and Russ House, San Francisco.

THE TIMES OFFICE is connected with the telephone system of this city, and those desiring to advertise in or subscribe for this paper can do so by this means.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.—The proprietors of the TIMES will pay a reward of $10 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of any person stealing the TIMES from the doors of of its subscribers.

CORRESPONDENCE on live topics solicited from all quarters. Local affairs and news given the preference. Correspondents are asked to cultivate accuracy, brevity, clearness, conciseness and timeliness; to use one side of the sheet only, to write plainly, and to send real name. Unless so verified, contributions will receive no attention.

PRINTING.—There is nothing in the printing line which the TIMES-MIRROR Printing, Binding and Ruling House is not prepared to execute in a manner equal to that of any office in the State. Satisfaction guaranteed.

BOOK-BINDING.—Books, magazines and pamphlets bound in Turkish leather, Morocco, cloth, sheepskin, or in any style desired at the TIMES-MIRROR Bindery. Our work is guaranteed to be equal to that done in San Francisco.

AMERICAN MEATS ABROAD.

The steady opposition of the Government of the German Empire to the introduction of American pork into that country has been referred to in these columns. Strenuous efforts have been made by the authorities to bar it out on the plea that much of it is trichina tainted. The real ground of opposition, however, has been developed: it is the dread of competition with our American meats in the German markets.

The same is true in France. Our Consuls abroad have been investigating the question for the last several years, and their reports to the State Department, from which the TIMES has from time to time quoted freely, reveal the "true inwardness" of the pork business in several of the leading European States. It is not always, or generally, trichina. In France, for instance, Consul Wilson, of Nantes, has established the fact that the exclusion of American pork and lard from the French Republic was not on account of disease, but more from the seriousness of American competition.

In 1874 the French Government imposed a tax of 92 cents per 100 kilograms, or 220 pounds, for the purpose of breaking up the competition. But the movement did not prove successful, and the importation of American salt pork arose from 4,079,139 kilograms in 1874 to 28,102,290 in 1878, and the total amount of American salt pork, grease and lard imported into France in 1878 was 62,827,925 kilograms.

It was easy to account for the demand for American pork and lard, for on June 20, 1878, American pork at Havre was worth 104 francs per 100 kilograms, against 135 francs for the French article at Nantes. At Havre American lard was worth 99.09 francs per 100 kilograms, against 139 francs for French lard.

When it was found that French dealers could not stand the competition, it was determined to keep the American pork and lard out, and the agitation was commenced. To show its nature, a quotation from a letter from the Chamber of Commerce at Nantes to the French Chamber of Deputies is here appended:

We cannot, Monsieur le President, but maintain the observations which we have suggested concerning the decadence of an industry heretofore considerable in our region. This industry is menaced with complete annihilation by the competition of the United States of America.

In effect, the introduction into France of the American salt provisions under the duty of 4.60 francs, has a continually increasing importance."

From 4,000,000 kilograms, figures of 1874, it has attained those of 28,000,000 kilograms in 1878, and the table of "commerce general of France" acknowledges for the year 1879 an importation of 31,784,913 kilograms of salt bacon from America. These figures are of the "commerce special," and consequently represent the salt provisions for consumption.

It belongs to the parliament to fix the limits of the protection, which is the legitimate right of the French manufacturers, but it is important to remember that the actual duty of 4.60 francs, which is imposed on the salt pork from America, makes no protection for our manufacturers.

In obedience to this kind of agitation the decree of prohibition was passed on February 14th, 1881. Theoretically, the decree was based on sanitary grounds, but practically, the cause was the ability of the Americans to undersell the French packers by from 30 to 40 francs per 100 kilograms. In the meantime the French people are paying remarkable prices for meats of all kinds. Beef soup joints sell at retail at 20 cents per pound; roast beef at from 30 to 50 cents per pound; French ham sells at from 35 to 38 cents per pound, and bacon at the same prices.

THE fertility and fame of Los Angeles soil, the beauty of our climate and the lucrativeness of the farmer's pursuit here, are facts which are fast spreading over the country. They are strong enough to make their way, despite the misrepresentations of disappointed and jealous persons who seek to stem the tide of immigration by writing down the country in journals abroad, where their misstatements cannot always be refuted. Here is a little item which has found its way into the Alta, of the sort that do good as they go floating about the country:

A good example of extraordinary profits in farming is found in the case of a Los Angeles man who last year bought 100 acres of land at $40 an acre, ploughed and planted it with alfalfa, and will this year cut three crops, worth $40 an acre, or just the price of the land. Next year he expects the crop will be worth $80 an acre.

TROUBLE seems to be brewing between China and Japan, and both Governments are increasing their armies and navies. A war between the two countries will perhaps serve to test the question of the patriotism of the subjects of the contending powers. It would be curious if the Chinese in this country should, in the event of a war involving the "Flowery Kingdom," flock home and take up arms for Confucius and country.

A DEFENSE of the action of Gov. Stoneman in vetoing the bill appropriating $25,000 for the purchase of the Yo Semite trails, is printed in another column.

THE Democracy are exceedingly unhappy. The Louisville Courier-Journal (tree-trade Democratic) openly charges that the protectionists will make an effort to purchase enough votes to elect Sam. Randall Speaker of the next House. It is wonderful how poor an opinion the Democratic organs have of their own statesmen. If Randall buys the Speakership, of course it necessarily follows that a good many Democratic members are ready to sell their votes, and yet during the canvas before the election of these men they were all held up as models of purity. The Speakership contest will test the virtue of these political virgins.

THE chances of Sam Randall for the Speakership of the next House are said by a careful canvasser to be the best. We doubt it, but hope it is true, for Sam's candidature will make a beautiful row in the ranks of the conglomerate party. It will set Protection and Free Trade by the ears, and then the air will be filled with profanity and fur.

AN exchange puts it thusly: "Those who write for sample copies will please send stamps, not for publication, but as an evidence that they don't take us for a bald-headed philanthropist, with a gold-headed cane and an income of $700,000 a year, who is printing a paper for amusement and paying the postage on it for fun."

SAM COX announces that he is in the field as a candidate for Speaker of the next House. When was he not a candidate? It will be a hyperborean day when the clown of Congress fails to appear on the floor in tights, cap and bells and distorted countenance for the edification of the gathered wisdom of the Republic, so called.

BEING driven to the wall, the Express loses its temper, descends to filth, and threatens to produce a "character." This is very grotesque. It started in in true swashbuckler style to punish the TIMES, but it has "petered out," and now winds up by a very natural movement, to-wit, crawfishing.

THE editor of the Los Angeles Evening Express tells his readers with a show of confidence that he really and truly believes he could, by strict attention to the business of canvassing the community, actually extort from it a certificate of character! Quien sabe?

THE HON. E. B. WASHBURNE, who is now in San Diego, informed a Sun reporter that it is his intention to remain in that place for three weeks, to obtain needed rest, and hoping to obtain relief from a bronchial affection.

LITTLE SAMCOX will dance into the Congressional ring when the Speakership contest next comes on, with a flourish, a grimace, and the stock announcement, "Here we are again!" They all do it—do all the clowns.

THE Mexican Central has begun the construction of the Pacific division at San Blas with 600 laborers. San Blas was chosen as the Pacific terminus, with Tepic as an intermediate station.

MEN AND WOMEN.

The Nevada papers say that ex-Senator Sharon will go back to that State to live.

Charles Dudley Warner presides over the Editor's Drawer of Harper's Magazine.

According to the London Telegraph, A. H. Stephens was eminent because his contemporaries were intellectual pigmies.

The sale of the effects of General Kilpatrick at Deckertown, New Jersey, realized a sum sufficient to pay off a mortgage on his real estate.

Mrs. Richard Rush and daughter, members of one of the historical families of Philadelphia, have arrived in San Francisco.

A servant girl, employed by the deceased Prince Gortschakoff, had a written promise of marriage from him. Unfortunately the Prince died at the early age of eighty-four, and was therefore unable to fulfill the engagement.

Takasivi-Bakin, a Chinese novelist who flourished in the early part of the present century, wrote a story entitled the "Biography of the Eight Dogs," in one hundred and twenty volumes. So there is one novelist quite as diffuse as Miss Braddon.

The Courier-Journal says: It seems quite likely that an attempt will be made to blow up the Czar. The Czar should let more of his people into the government. Where only a few persons are given an opportunity to steal there will always be dissatisfaction.

Hon. Joseph Cilley, of New Hampshire, the oldest ex-Senator living, is a veteran of the war of 1812. He still lives in a house built by him in 1824. For sixty years he has drawn a pension of $40 per month, all of which he has laid aside without disturbing a penny.

Snubbing Visitors.

From the Stockton Herald.]

When Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, ex-Senator David Davis and ex-Lieutenant-Governor Dorsheimer, of New York, were in Los Angeles the other day, no pains were taken to make their stay pleasant. Indeed the eminent editor and his companions, not being known by sight, got some mortifying snubbings [while endeavoring to see the sights of the semi-tropical region. Our esteemed contemporaries of Los Angeles are now delivering editorial lectures on good manners and the commercial value of the same. They fear that their visitors have gone away with a very low opinion of the intelligence and culture of the town. They are doubtless right. When Editor Dana prints in the Sun his observations on the influence of the glorious climate of California in transforming the boor into the gentleman, we shall enjoy the reading.

[But one of the steamed cotemporaries, the Evening Express, says the treatment extended to our visitors was all right—just the thing.—ED. TIMES.]

Let Adequate Hospitalities be Extended.

From the Oakland Times, April 16.]

Mr. Dana, of the N. Y. Sun, and Hon. William Dorsheimer have sojourned a few days in Southern California, and are now in the Yosemite. In a few days they will reach this city and San Francisco on their tour. We hope adequate hospitalities will be extended to these two eminent gentlemen in these metropolitan cities, that their stay with us may be made pleasant to them and profitable to us in the good impression they take with them to their Eastern homes.

Books for Sale Cheap.

From the Ventura Free Press.]

Subscribers to the History of Ventura County will sell their copies cheap. The mechanical work is first class, but the literary portion is the most bungling piece of hotch-potch ever put inside of handsome covers.

BEN. BUCKBOARD.

Ben. Buckboard was a driver gay,
Who sought the hand in marriage
Of Carrie Hall, (quite rich) they say,
A girl of noble carriage.

Now Ben. was smart, and off did start
To the firm of Rees & Wirsching,
And a buggy he bought, strong and neatly wrought,
So now Carrie's coin he's disbursing.

Of course the other fellow "got left," and to save him and others from a similar source of sadness, we use this vehicle to inform them that we are makers and importers of fine Buggies, Farm and Spring Wagons and farming Implements. We are proud to connect our name with the Newton Wagon, which we have so long handled here. It is made specially for this climate, and is better ironed, better painted, runs lighter, and gives better satisfaction than any wagon sold in this market. We buy for cash and in car-load lots, and can, therefore, sell as low as those dealing in inferior stock. Agents for D. M. Osborne & Co.'s Mowers and Reapers. Old wagons repaired and painted, and taken in part payment for new ones.

I. R. DUNKELBERGER, P. M.

An Advocate of Hair.

From the San Jose Mercury.]

Why do men wear short hair? Partly because it's the fashion, but more for the reason that they consider long hair on men as a sign of weakness. Why do they think that? Because women wear long hair and have, by the great majority of men, been socially looked upon as weak and brainless, and are even to-day politically classed among idiots. But what of the short-haired women! O, they are only strong-minded! Since ancient times long and abundant hair has been significant of bodily strength,—strength generally means health, and that in turn, a sound mind. In colonial days men wore long hair, either their own or wigs. All know the relation they bear to the great United States of to-day, and the glorious parts they played in the awful struggle for independence. If hair is woman's crowning glory, it is no less ornamental to man, and he who would make the most of what nature has done for him by way of good looks, should never be seen with a clipped cranium.

His First Bug Query.

The Napa Reporter publishes the following, which is the first query in entomology propounded to the new Inspector of Fruit Pests: "Mister Editur: Will you allow me the youse of the columns of your valuable paper to enquire of that eminent horticulturist, Mr. Bilbogs, if this climate, country and religion are adapted to the raising of dried apples, and war I can get the seed, and what time should I plant him, and what time should I sproud him, and if so how much? And in raisin brooms, ain't the striped-handle variety the most hardy, and so forth? Yours affectionately, NAPA FARMER.

The San Francisco Examiner says: "The Sacramento Record-Union is advised that bad blood exists among the San Francisco Democracy. This is a mistake. We are as thick as three in a bed." Exactly, and that some one will be kicked out of that sleeping arrangement is as certain as that the campaign of 1884 will open.—[Record-Union.

An experience of several years in the Australian colonies, San Francisco, Salt Lake City and Denver, in which places he has treated successfully thousands of persons, enables him to assert, with confidence that he can cure diseases that have defied the application of medical science. Magnetism is the life principle within us. The air we breathe is charged with it. It is the vital force emanating from all persons and that which connects the soul with the body. In support of this theory he cures acute pains instantly, local pains in a few days, and builds up the most shattered constitution in a short time. Dr. Robbins, who has a world-wide reputation for his extraordinary cures of all difficult and complicated diseases, possesses a power to relieve and cure all kinds of disease. Dr. Robbins diagnoses disease free of charge without explanation from the patient. If you wish references consult the patients now undergoing treatment. Office hours 9 A. M. to 5 P. On the occasion of the Tehachepi disaster Mr. E. Several applicants were admitted to practice in the Supreme Court, among them Samuel Canfield (license from Superior Court of Michigan), James W. Towner (license from Supreme Court of New York), and John L. Requa, license by the Supreme Court of New York.

The case of King vs. Burkhart, from San Bernardino county, was ordered on the calendar for April 24th, and further ordered that the Hon. H. C. Rolfe, Judge of the Superior Court of the county of San Bernardino, deliver or transmit the original package containing the ballots of San Bernardino precinct, now in his custody, to the Clerk of this Court on or before April 24th, 1883.

Odd Fellows' Celebration.

The first lodge of the I. O. O. F. in America was founded in Baltimore in April, 1819, by Thos. Wildy and four others, and was named Washington Lodge No. 1. The order had previously existed for some seven years in England. In commemoration of the sixty-fourth anniversary of the institution in this country the several lodges in this city have determined to hold a grand celebration on Thursday, April 24th, consisting of a procession, and banquet and ball in the evening at Turnverein Hall. A very enjoyable affair may be expected. Full particulars may be found in our advertising columns.

BUILDING A CITY HALL.

An Election to be Held Thursday, May 3d.

Council met in adjourned session at 8 o'clock last evening, to consider the matter of calling an election to decide upon the question of issuing bonds to erect public buildings in the city of Los Angeles.

Present Messrs. Kuhrts, Moore, Hammel, Gassen, Ryan, Weyse, Schieffelin, Ballade, Bush, Schroeder, Steere, Kerckhoff and President Moran.

The resolution for holding an election was passed with but one dissenting voice, the title of which is: "A resolution for the holding of a special election, at which shall be submitted to a vote of the people the question of issuing bonds for the purpose of providing funds for the purchase of a lot and the erection thereon of public buildings for city purposes."

The election is called for Thursday, May 3d, the polls to be opened an hour after sunrise and to remain open until sunset. The form of ballot to be used will be, Bonds—yes. Bonds—no. The amount of the bonds is not to exceed $100,000 and to run twenty years.

The Council then fixed the places for holding the election in the different wards, with the inspector and judges for each ward as follows:

1st Ward. At Elite Sample Room, San Fernando street. Inspector, G. E. Long. Judges, J. M. Thomas, C. N. Earl.

2d Ward. Office of Chief of Police. Inspector, C. E. Parker. Judges, A. G. Mappa, S. Moran.

3d Ward. Turnverein Hall. Inspector, M. Teed. Judges, W. J. Neeley, G. H. Pike.

4th Ward. At Confidence Engine House, No. 2. Inspector, F. Sabichi. Judges, O. H. Bliss, S. Kutz.

5th Ward. At Washington Gardens. Inspector, G. J. Clarke. Judges, T. Leahy, J. T. Brown.

Mr. Steere moved that the City Surveyor be instructed to set grade stakes on Olive street, between Second and Courthouse. Carried.

Mr. Weyse moved that the City Clerk be instructed to notify the water and gas companies to remove their pipes running through aqueducts now being built on First street. So ordered.

Mr. Kuhrts moved that the City Clerk be instructed to notify the Water Company to remove the fire hydrants from the west side to the east side of San Fernando street, in front of new depot. Carried.

Mr. Weyse asked for leave of absence for the longest time possible to be granted by the Council. On motion of Mr. Kuhrts six months leave of absence was granted.

Council then adjourned to Saturday evening, April 21st.

A Lively Smash-up.

Wm. Parrish, a resident of the quiet little hamlet of Florence, paid a visit to the city yesterday, and in his rounds imbibed altogether too much bug-juice for his own safety or the peace and quiet of the community. After he had got in such a frame of mind that he concluded he was the best fellow in the world and everybody was his friend, he managed to climb into his buggy in front of the United States Hotel, and commenced to whip his horse without taking up the lines. The horse naturally rushed wildly around, and Parrish finally caught one line and managed to steer the vehicle up to the corner of Temple block, where it collided with a post, breaking the top off and throwing the occupant out, without, however, his sustaining any serious injury. The horse then ran down to Market street, where the already badly used-up buggy struck Lankersham's delivery wagon, breaking the axle. The horse, attached to the buggy, was thrown to the ground and badly injured, and the damaged wagon and buggy were removed for repairs. Considering the crowded condition of the thoroughfares on which the accident occurred, it was astonishing that more damage was not done; but enough was accomplished to show that Los Angeles whisky has not lost any of its former time reputation, and may still be depended upon to paralyze, upon short notice, the intellect of any one who indulges in it.

A New Lumber Yard.

A year or so ago Mr. James M. Davies, of the firm of Davies Bros., large lumber dealers at Topeka, Kansas, visited this city with his family. He was at that time much pleased with the climate and general prospects, and rumor had it then that he would engage in the lumber business here. He did think of doing so and purchased the site then occupied by Griffith's yard on the southwest corner of First and Almeda streets. He was not then ready to embark, and returned home to Topeka. On Thursday last he again arrived in Los Angeles, and has now formed a copartnership with three other gentlemen under the title of the Davies-Henderson Lumber Company, consisting of Mr. J. M. Davies, President; J. A. Henderson, Vice President; W. F. Marshall, Secretary, and J. R. Smurr, Treasurer. Messrs. Henderson and Marshall have until recently been engaged in the hardware business here, in which they were eminently successful. Mr. Smurr was in the lumber business at Downey until a year ago, when he became connected with the firm of J. M. Griffith & Co., of this city, and at present is connected with the San Pedro Lumber Company. He is a young gentleman of very fine business qualifications. The firm is a strong and practical one. A portion of their stock is now on the way here from the lumber regions of the north, and Messrs. Davies and Henderson went to San Francisco last evening to arrange for further supplies for stocking the yard completely in every detail.

A Lively Blaze.

As the clock in the steeple tolled the hour of twelve last night pistol shots from the direction of Alameda and First streets told of something unusual there, and in an instant more lurid flames were seen reaching skyward. The engines were out in a trice, but when they arrived at the scene they found the building used by Geo. P. Mohan & Co., as a butcher shop, in flames from one end to the other. The building was a shell, and quick work was made of it. Only the charred remains of the frame remained standing in ten minutes after the alarm was given. Officer Fletcher arrived on the ground just in time to be of service. Mohan was off up town when the fire broke out, and when he found his shop on fire he concluded to lick his wife, and was proceeding to do so in first-class shape, when the officer collared him. He found it wasn't a defenseless woman in his grasp that time, and after a few demonstrations concluded Fletcher's muscle demanded respect. Mrs. Mohan was sleeping in the building at the time of the fire and was awakened by a neighbor just in time to save her life and that of her babe. The fire is said to have been caused by the explosion of a lamp. The loss is estimated at about $1,000.

SET FOR TO-MORROW.

Harper, Reynolds & Co. vs. Scott & Co. et al.

A Careless Driver.

A runaway caused by careless driving occurred yesterday on Spring street, near Court. Two men, each in different wagons, were talking. One started up to get out of the way of a passing street-car, and pulled his horses around so short that the wagon, from standing on the wheels, was in the twinkling of an eye reversed, and the wheels were in the air, with two men and a boy underneath. There was some tall scrambling and grunting for a minute, but they all came out of the affair whole.

Two Insanes.

There were two men locked up last night thought to be insane. One has recently been discharged from the Hospital, and the other is a solid, substantial built man, who imagines himself to be Grant's partner, and calls himself "Blessed Grant." Before it was known that his mind was afflicted, he brought in an extraordinary production which he wished printed, and it will be found elsewhere.

Stoneman's Yosemite Veto.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: Governor Stoneman and Guardian Hutchings are alike misrepresented in the following extract from the Sacramento correspondence of the Ontario Fruit Grower. The fulsome eulogy of the latter is as ludicrous as the criticism of the former is uncalled for and unjust. A writer, over the signature—presumably pseudo—of "Carl Brown," exhibits his misconception of the situation in the following remarks:

"Just before adjournment, a veto from the Governor of the Yosemite Appropriation bill was announced, and caused great regret. Inasmuch as this is the year when the Knights Templar are to visit the State, the State should be in a position to show off its great attraction to the best advantage. It leaves the Commissioners in the midst of the prosecution of work on trails and roads that should have been completed before our great crowd of visitors that will no doubt be in attendance on the Triennial Conclave, from a distance, begin to pay pilgrimages to the valley. Besides it cuts off summarily that old land-mark—and since the year 1850 a fixture of the Yosemite Valley—the talented, refined and noble J. M. Hutchings, the guardian of the valley, since he was robbed of his rights therein. A man who has spent a lifetime among the grand old crags and towering cliffs, rushing waters and tremendous falls; who has expended many thousands of dollars in opening up and advertising this great wonder to the world; who loves to talk of it and describe it to others, and to inform visitors of all matters of interest and make the visit as comfortable as great experience and courteous deportment can do. His pleasing face, and name known in almost every clime and tongue, will be missed there this season, entailing a loss on all visitors and belittling the great State of California, which through the ill-advised act of its Chief Executive has caused this unfortunate condition. It surprises me that the Governor should have done this. One would rather suppose that a man educated as he must be would have more love for the beautiful than to have thus put a black splotch on one of California's most resplendent beauties—the Yosemite Valley. But it is often said that soldiers are cold blooded from sheer force of occupation, and therefore callous to the finer sensibilities of life, and it would seem that Stoneman is no exception to the rule of his name."

Every sentence of the above excerpt that is lucid enough to be understoood—the latter clause of the last one is not—tends to mislead the reader. Hutchings, however much he may be "cut off," whatever may have happened to him, is not a martyr. Among the advantages of the veto, his excision is not, I fear, included. Relief from that ineffable incubus can only come from a majority of the Board of Management. And that Board seems disposed to still accept and suffer from his insane advice, e. g., his sawmill scheme, and that insatiate fund-sinker, the new Nevada-Vernal Falls trail. Meanwhile the daily walk and conversation of visitors are interrupted by the dangerous pitfalls in the footway between the hotels.

But, Mr. Editor, neither your space nor my time is ample enough to allow a rehearsal of the foundation facts upon which the Yosemite veto was based. Governor Stoneman broadly subserved the public interest when he returned the bill with his objections. The objections are fatal and final with every intelligent friend of Yosemite. Gov. Stoneman's action is no "surprise," save to those who, like "Carl Brown," have a talent for misconstruing everything. His panegyric is a case of mistaken identity. To Galen Clark belong the characteristics ascribed to J. M. Hutchings. Had Gov. Stoneman vetoed an appropriation for a life annuity for Clark, "C. B's" arraignment of the Governor's "sensibilities" would have had some justification—as it is, none whatever.

All honor to the "soldier" who was educated enough to brave the current misapprehension of which Carl Brown's remarks are the echo. The veto has saved $25,000, for the real benefit of the Wonder Valley when it shall be under happier auspices. As a citizen for years of Yosemite, I heartily uphold the wisdom of the veto.

HONORING A BRAVE MAN.

A. Y. Ross is Presented with a Watch and Check for $1000.

All our readers will remember the brave messenger who defended his car from the attack of robbers at Montello, on the Union Pacific Railroad. The following letters explain themselves and do honor to one of the bravest men living:

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2, 1883.

Mr. A. Y. Ross, Messenger, Ogden, U. T.—DEAR SIR: Supplementing my letter of February 5th, relating to your intrepid conduct at Montello January 23d, in successfully resisting the attack of five highway robbers on your car, and in fact in having practically protected the lives and property of the passengers on the train, I herewith enclose you a check for $1000, as a substantial tribute from this Company; and also, as a mark of especial recognition and possibly more enduring testimonial, a gold watch, chain and seal, engraved as follows:

"From Wells, Fargo & Co. to Messenger A. Y. Ross, in token of his courageous and successful defense of the express car against highway robbers at Montello, Nevada, January 23d, 1883."

I never doubted from previous knowledge of your bravery, that in such an emergency as that which occurred at Montello, your heroism would be manifested; but its sturdy exhibition could not and cannot be otherwise than inspiring to all fellow employees and persons holding places of trust, stimulating them to emulate such an example of fidelity and valor.

With all good wishes for you and yours, I am, very truly, JOHN J. VALENTINE.

RENO, Nev., April 12, 1883.

Mr. Jno. J. Valentine, Gen. Supt., San Francisco—DEAR SIR: Upon my arrival at Ogden I was handed a sealed package addressed to me. Upon opening same I was agreeably surprised to find the contents to be a magnificent gold watch and chain and the Company's check for one thousand dollars, in recognition of my efforts in the Montello affair. Words will poorly convey to you my thanks for these and the many kindnesses received from Wells, Fargo & Co. since entering their service.

In doing as I did on the above occasion I simply did my duty, for which the successful issue amply paid. Please accept my heartfelt thanks for this noble generosity, resting assured it is highly prized, and should the Company's interest in the future require it I shall not be found wanting. Yours truly,

AARON Y. ROSS.

The Bugs Rejoicing.

Sacramento Bee.]

While journals are filling columns with acrimonious discussion over the inspectorship of fruit pests, the bugs are having a jolly good time of it.

The death of Postmaster-General Howe leaves in active public life only three men who, with him, occupied seats in the United States Senate when President Lincoln called it together in special session at the outbreak of the war. They are Senators Anthony and Sherman and Daniel Clark, United States District Judge for New Hampshire. Not more than half a dozen other members of that Senate are now living, among them being Mr. Doolittle, who was then Mr. Howe's colleague. The Vice-President, Hannibal Hamlin, and the Chaplain, Dr. Byron Sunderland, also yet survive.

TWO BROKEN HOUSEHOLDS.

A Runaway Couple from Iowa Bring up in Los Angeles.

A simple entry occurs on the docket of Justice Morgan's Court, which reads, "People vs. Fannie M. Phillips and H. H. Peck, adultery. Peck arraigned. Bail fixed at $500, which was deposited with the Court." That is all that appears above the surface of a case which has brought sorrow and distress to a large number of hearts and broke up two homes, one of which at least, has hitherto been a happy one, but now the hearthstone is cold, the nest has been despoiled; the mother is gone and the birdlings are bereft of a tender care which they hardly knew or realized until it was taken from them. The home was entered by a monster and the result is desolation. On Sunday last, Mr. W. W. Phillips, of the town of Wyoming, Jones county, Iowa, arrived in this city in search of a couple, one of whom was H. H. Peck and the other Mrs. Fannie M. Phillips, his wife. These two left Iowa about the third of January, Peck ostensibly to go East and Mrs. Phillips to visit a sister in Colorado and her mother in San Francisco, she taking with her her youngest child, a boy six years old. Mrs. Phillips left a family of six children behind, beside the child she has with her, four of whom are boys, and two of them grown up, and two girls. As she did not visit either her mother or sister suspicions were aroused aad search was made for her whereabouts. A photograph of Peck, a very large man as regards hight, standing six feet three inches, and is as homely as he is tall, was sent to the Sheriff's office here, with a description of both man and woman, and it was but a day or two when they were "spotted" by Deputy Sheriff Gard, who quietly worked up the case and proved the whole affair without the suspicion of the parties. Word was sent to the injured husband, and by some means the wife here became aware that her hiding place had been discovered, and about two weeks previous to the arrival of Mr. Phillips she took her boy and went to San Francisco, to give color to the story that she really had come west to visit her old mother. A telegram was sent up from here by the Sheriff's office, on the arrival of Phillips, to arrest Mrs. Phillips, and she is expected to arrive in this city this morning in the custody of Deputy Sheriff Huber, when she will be called to answer to the charge of adultery.

Private letters received here state that the family of Mr. Phillips has always been highly respected in the community where they have lived for twelve years, and not a breath of slander or scandal has been heard of them until the infatuation and flight of the wife. This affair is said to have grown out of a case in which one of Mrs. Phillips's boys was charged with a crime, and Mr. Phillips being employed on the railroad and away from home, Peck went on the boy's bond, and then began the attentions which have caused all the trouble. Peck is also a married man and has children grown up and married. He continued his attentions to Mrs. Phillips until his wife became incensed, and the two separated just before this escapade. Mrs. Phillips, to allay suspicion, soon after leaving home wrote that she had just arrived in San Francisco but had not yet visited her mother because she was so worn with travel. Her letters never had a postmark, but were evidently handed in on the train to prevent her whereabouts being known. Further developments will be made in the Courts at an early day.

A Convicted Murderer Confesses.

MORRYSTOWN, N. J., April 17.—James Trigtown, sentenced to be executed tomorrow for the murder of Minnie Chigwin, confesses that his statements at the time of the trial against the girl were false. He never knew anything detrimental to her character. He confessed having followed Minnie and Harry James, his rival, along the towpath, and attempting to shoot James, but his revolver missed fire the first time, and Minnie, stepping between himself and James, received the second shot. In the struggle they both rolled into the canal, and when he disengaged her arms from around his neck she was dead. He then made two attempts at self-destruction, one bullet passing into the the back of his ear. The Sheriff thinks this is a true statement. Trigtown busied himself to-day by writing letters to his mother, bidding his brother good-bye and conversing with his spiritual advisers.

Ancient Law Makers.

About the beginning of the Fifth Century, the Saliane, after their settlement in Gaul, under their King, Pharamond, they framed a body of laws which have since been known as Salic; but at that time those law makers knew nothing of the wonderful discovery which works harmoniously with nature's laws, and which is a positive boon to those suffering from Rheumatism, Gout or Neuralgia. We refer to that common-sense remedy, Salicylica.
